Sinan Saül's Occasus

Inspired by the colors of sunset Saül created the series called OCCASUS meaning both sunset and destruction in Latin language. Series consist of totemic characters drawn in black accompanying the colors of sunset i.e. pink, blue and yellow. The nocturnal nature of totems and the vivid colors of sunset create a dynamism between life and death, expressing the unrelenting power of cosmos and its power on human emotions.

“Like the night follows the day, we all become monsters of destruction filled with crepuscular rays, the very thing that keeps us alive” SAUL
